

LIST OF AGREEMENTS FOR LOCAL NOMINEE COMPANY

A) Call Option Agreement:

The call option agreement is a legally-binding agreement between two parties, the buyer/nominee and the Seller Company, governing the terms of a call option. The buyer/nominee of the call option has the right (but not the obligation) to buy an agreed quantity of a particular commodity or security, for example shares in a company, from the Seller Company of the option within a certain time frame, for a certain price. The Seller Company is obligated to sell the predefined commodities or securities should the buyer/nominee decide to exercise the call option.

This call option agreement covers the standard terms of a call option, for example the option period, quantity and price of shares or security, and consideration for the call option, as well as a number of detailed additional clauses including but not limited to Representation and Warranties, Covenants and Settlement of Disputes.

As per the call option agreement:

- ✓ The Nominee grants to the Seller Company exclusive, irrevocable and unconditional rights to the Seller Company to purchase all, but not less than all of, the Options Shares (Call Option) at any time during the Exercise period.
- ✓ The Seller Company shall exercise the Call Option at any time during the Exercise Period by serving a Call Option Notice to the Nominee.

B) Loan Agreement:

The Loan Agreement is a legally binding agreement between two parties, the Lender (Seller Company) and the Borrower/ Nominee, whereas the Lender (Seller Company) has made available to the Borrower/nominee a facility of borrowing for the sole purpose of enabling the Borrower to fund the purchase of Shares.

In the agreement both the Lender (Seller Company) and the borrower/nominee acknowledge and agree that this Loan Agreement shall be a limited recourse loan agreement under which the Lender's claim in respect of payment of the Loan hereunder shall be restricted to (i) net proceeds received by the Borrower/Nominee from the sale of all or any of the Shares, (ii) dividends on the Shares actually received by the Borrower/Nominee and (iii) net proceeds received by the Borrower as a result of the liquidation of the Company.

The Lender (Seller Company) and borrower further acknowledge and agree through this agreement that the Borrower may satisfy the Loan hereunder by tendering the Shares to the Lender. In such an event, the Lender may accept such tender or to designate a qualified party to do so. All net proceeds of the transfer of the Shares received by the Borrower/Nominee shall be paid over to the Lender upon which the Loan shall be deemed satisfied and the obligations of the Borrower hereunder extinguished.
